

Koorie Access Scholarship

SCHOLARSHIP CONDITIONS

TERMS & CONDITIONS

- Scholarship value is up to $2000
- Applicants will not receive any monetary payment to the value of the scholarship unless fees have already been paid or fees are less than the awarded amount, in which case the student may receive a cheque
- Any monetary payments the student receives is to be spent towards educational related materials such as textbooks, tools, uniform or tuition fees and/or to assist with financial hardship as outlined in the student's application
- An applicant may only be awarded one scholarship during their study at Holmesglen
- All correspondence will be via email, including acknowledgement of receipt of applications
- Scholarships may take up to 4 weeks to process. Please do not contact Student Wellbeing regarding the progress of your application unless an issue arises

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

- Prospective or current Holmesglen students are eligible to apply
- Only Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander people are eligible to apply. Proof of Aboriginality is required
- Applicants who are a family member of a Holmesglen employee or agent are not eligible to apply
- Applicants cannot be a recipient of any other scholarship/award
- Documentary evidence is required to support your application

SELECTION PROCESS

1. Applicants are required to complete the Koorie Access Scholarship Application Form and attach their additional supporting documents
2. Please write and tell us, in no more than 500 words, why you have chosen the course and what completing the course will do for your future.
3. Applicants are recommended to request the assistance of the Koorie Unit to complete their application
4. Submit application and documentation to Student Wellbeing at Chadstone, Glen Waverley or Moorabbin Campus or by email to: indigenous@holmesglen.edu.au
5. The Holmesglen Scholarship review panel will assess all applications and make a final decision on whether the application is successful or unsuccessful.
6. Successful applicants will be notified in writing via email
7. The decision of the Holmesglen Scholarship review panel is final and no further communication will be entered into